

Let's Talk About It: Picturing America
Making Tracks

Poetry Selections

“Window” by Carl Sandburg

Night from a railroad car window
Is a great, dark, soft thing
Broken across with slashes of light.

Carl Sandburg (1878–1967). Chicago Poems. 1916.