

Transcribe-a-thon: Mary Church Terrell Letters

Thursday, February 21 at 7pm
Washingtoniana
4340 Connecticut Avenue NW

Learn about a hometown hero as you help make her legacy discoverable by generations to come!

Explore, tag, and transcribe as we work together to make the legacy of Mary Church Terrell, Civil Rights and Women's Rights pioneer, discoverable for generations to come.

Library of Congress staff will lead this workshop on their new virtual volunteer program (crowd.loc.gov). DC Public Library staff will also share items related to Terrell's life.

Bring a laptop if you have one -- limited number of library devices available.

No transcription experience required!

Submitted for Review
Transcription

Letterhead: Cedar Hill, Anacostia, D.C.
March 3, 1896

My dear Mrs. Terrell:
Allow me to express with the many others who will doubtless do so, my glad appreciation of the sentiments offered by you in your tribute to the memory of Mr. Douglass, and of the perfect delivery, and the self-possession maintained by you throughout its presentation.

Edit Accept

Tags

Add a new tag... Add

Cedar Hill x Frederick Douglass x
thank you note x Washington x Anacostia x

